

Mind Your P's and Q's

By Gerry Mitchell

© 2006

Mind your P's and Q's in everything you do.
Manners are what matter, they make a better you.

Say your "Pleases" softly, let your "Thank you's" fill the air.

Say "excuse me", "I beg your pardon", and "you're welcome". Show everyone you care.

Mind your P's and Q's in everything you do.
Manners are what matter, they make a better you.

Your mother and father are quite correct these are the magic words.

You may not always get your wish, but you will always be heard.

Mind your P's and Q's in everything you do.
Manners are what matter, they make a better you.